DR. A. Q. KHAN SCHOOL & COLLEGE, BAHRIA TOWN PHASE-8
MODEL PAPER ENGLISH CLASS: VI

Time Allowed: 2.10 Hrs

Maximum Marks: 50

SECTION-B (30 MARKS)

Q2. Read the following passage and answer the questions given at the end. (3+1+4+2+2+2+2=12)

Abdul Sattar Edhi had the vision of establishing welfare homes and shelters to minimize the grievances of the people who lived in misery and had no one who could provide them with the basic necessities of life. Through these shelter homes, Edhi vowed to take care of the people who were maltreated, neglected and had any sort of physical or mental disability. He wanted to turn his dream of establishing shelter homes and hospitals into reality, but due to lack of resources he would visit streets and beg for this purpose. Edhi began his mission by establishing a free dispensary for the needy in collaboration with some community members.

Edhi wanted to establish an organization that could serve multiple purposes and thus founded "Edhi Trust". His vision developed and nurtured further as he went on to build Edhi homes, maternity homes and initiate an ambulance service across Karachi. Edhi was given the title of "Angel of Mercy" on account of his countless services such as raising funds, burial services and helping people in the hour of need irrespective of race, status, religion or gender.
